

Kaitlyn Trusty

Kaitlyn Trusty is a New York-based Production Supervisor, Audio Technician, and Stage Manager with a background in music and theater. She and Jarrett met in grade school and she is currently working at The Public, Chelsea Factory, and Hostos Community College. Recent productions include Where We Belong, Public Work's As You Like It, and Shakespeare in the Park's Richard III. Her aspiration as an artist is to create and build a more diverse, inclusive, and accountable theater community full of authentic and originality. She received her Bachelor's in Civil and Environmental Engineering from SUNY Canton in 2021. For my mom, thank you for the gift of musical theatre. Follow her adventures on Insta: @kaitlyntea!aa!
